AR-ANM-RICE02-041-

Dear Pat and Fatima
It is ages since I wrote you so I am putting these few lines together. a few inches of the page to give me light to write. I have a light within all in good health and spirits. I hope you are settled into your new home in Buenos Aires.
It is a big change from the country. Hard on the children to live in the city. I suppose Fatima and yourself know a lot of people there.
I would not like to move into a city or even foreign now. As regards my health I am getting along in fair form. I find my sight and hearing are gone back a bit also my intellect. I cannot understand things like I could before. However, reason is very understanding especially Tom to explain to me. It is all a process of life.

We are after a terrible cold, wet spell since last October. I have a fire at my feet. It was never known the go of May we have our winter clothes on yet and the cold and falth are all persisted with. Potatoes have yet wet. A lot of the barley and wheat are yet wet. You could not go near the ground, it is so wet.

Ned's third child, Anna is making her first holy communion on Saturday. I don't know if I will go or not. It is a bit of a walk. I can only walk very slowly and the only person I can go with is Margaret and her family. I am going to the U.S.A. for the World Cup next June. You know Ireland is next to be held, and are
