I am enclosing some Pictures of the new Church in Danamur - You may not have seen them - they were in "Irish Times" last week & I got a copy of it yesterday - Mick Mansfield might be interested in seeing them - If you can don't let it get lost as it is a very nice souvenir of the Church - I hope you can figure it out. It's quite different to the one in Fermoy.

We have about 2 weeks now of full time study we don't have to travel to Maynooth at all - then we have the Exams - They are not too important this year - Next year D.V. they will be much more important as some of us are doing a Degree in Theology & we do our Final Exam for the " then. Fr. Flannery & the Minister Mr.

Poland are having a great argument at the moment over Housing! - It is quite a change from a few years ago when a priest could not be as free to express his opinions as he ^{is} ~~was~~ today.

I must hurry now to Supper,
Best Wishes to Daddy & all at Home
Goodbye & Good Night,
Love from Pat
