

1 December, 1981.

Dear all at home

I must apologise for not writing in the last few weeks. I was tied up in a Congress of Relatives of Disappeared Persons which finished here some 2 days ago. It was really an outstanding success and an important step forward to try and stop so much assassination and violence in Latin America. I picked up this series of Christmas cards as they are really nice. Through them I send you all at home in Loughmure & the other Relatives, Neighbours & Friends the desire of a truly happy Christmas & every Blessing in 1982 - With Bless & Love to all Pat.

Dear Nora

I got these from Pat and I am giving them to you for your grandchildren.
Good bye now Hoping all your family are well.
