Christmas, 1973

Dear Aunt Amy,

Best wishes for a happy Christmas to you, Uncle Willie and all the family. I'm afraid I can't remember Catherine's married name, but I know she is living with you.
I hope that you are all well, I expect that Catherine is looking forward to the baby's birth in the new year.

I was pleased to get down home when I was in Ireland at the beginning of December. Mary, Betty and Paddy were very well. Shortage of petrol prevented me from seeing Mary and Margaret.

I heard that Liam bought a house in Ballyroe.
Has he moved there yet?
It will make his journey to work shorter.

I am writing to Pat, I hope I can find his address. Fa Glavin called here one evening en route to Greece for three weeks holiday. I expect that you hear from Pat fairly regularly.

When is he due home?
You will have heard about the fuel and energy crisis here. Many people will be on a three day week. A number of people will suffer greatly because they will only receive three days wages.
Industrial workers will be very badly hit here, with the rising prices of food and rents, it will be very difficult for them to manage.
Is Catherine's house finished yet? I expect she will wave in there when her husband comes on leave.

As I was here so recently. I shall not be going over at Christmas. but I hope to spend some time at home early next year. I hope to see you all then.

With renewed wishes for Christmas and 1974.

Yours fond niece
