Dear Mr. Rice,

I am directed by the Minister for Foreign Affairs to refer to our letter of 7th July, 1977 and previous correspondences in which we requested you to make arrangements to have refunded to this Department the amount of £488 which was incurred in the return of your son, Father Patrick Rice, from Buenos Aires in December, 1976.

As you gave a verbal undertaking at the time to refund any expenses which would be incurred in this matter I am now to ask you to refund this amount of £488 to the Department at your earliest convenience.

Yours faithfully,

Mr. William Rice
